Prestige-Ledroit Partners with Untitled Art to Bring Boundary-Breaking Beverages to Washington, D.C

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Exclusive distribution rights mark a bold new chapter in delivering premium, category-defying drinks to the nation's capital.

Washington, D.C. — [9/8/25] — a premier distributor of artisanal wine and spirits, craft beer, and innovative beverages, is proud to announce an exciting new partnership with Untitled Art—a trailblazing, BIPOC/minority-owned beverage company redefining what premium means in every category it touches. Effective immediately, Prestige-Ledroit holds the exclusive rights to sell and distribute Untitled Art products in Washington, D.C.

Founded in 2016, Untitled Art was launched with a singular mission: to redefine premium beverages. More than just a brand, Untitled Art is a movement—a bold stand against the sea of mediocrity that floods today's drink shelves. From hazy IPAs and pastry stouts to non-alcoholic beers and functional beverages, Untitled Art crafts flavor experiences that do more than satisfy—they dazzle the senses.

This partnership strengthens both companies' missions to challenge the status quo and deliver only the best to their customers. With Prestige-Ledroit's deep-rooted presence and proven success in the D.C. market, Untitled Art is poised to connect with a wider audience of beverage lovers—from cutting-edge restaurants to forward-thinking retailers.

"Untitled Art is one of the most exciting and visionary beverage producers in the industry," said Jason Gotcher, VP of Beer Development. "Their focus on quality, artistry, and inclusivity perfectly aligns with our own values. We're proud to help bring their boundary-pushing portfolio to our nation's capital."

Untitled Art's full range of beverages will begin rolling out across Washington, D.C. this month through Prestige-Ledroit's distribution network.

Welcome to the future of premium beverages.
